BARROWBY SCARECROWS - KEY WORKERS AND HEROES - OUR MOST SUCCESSFUL FUNDRAISER YET!

Barrowby celebrated its 9th Scarecrow Festival with an eclectic, innovative take on the theme of Keyworkers and Heroes - with scarecrows ranging from teachers, firefighters, carers, cleaners, postmen and women, dustmen, our own local heroes and vaccine scientists, as well as heroes of old. As some scarecrows demonstrated, everyone has been a hero over the past 18 months! Turn to page 3 for all the photographs - and visit <https://barrowbyparishcouncil.org.uk/winners-of-the-2021-scarecrow-competition> to see the video montage of all the scarecrows - remember to turn up the sound!

KEYWORKER TEACHER: WINNING SCARECROW AND PEOPLE'S CHOICE

The highly successful and immensely enjoyable event raised over £2,300, making it the most successful weekend ever, for which huge thanks go to our sponsors (see page 2), Cairn Hotel Group for the raffle prizes, the Scarecrow Festival committee, all the volunteers over the weekend and the judges, Charlie and Marie Charlton. Thanks also to Jen at the Post Office for selling so many programmes and tickets, to Karen Muxlow for organising Made-in-Barrowby and to Nick at Rocket Exhibition Services for producing the colourful banner. Over 200 tickets were sold for the BBQ, and with the village full of families from all over visiting relatives it created a wonderful atmosphere on the Green. Thanks to the BBQ cooks and serving team who ensured Skinners' burgers and hot dogs went down well.
